Tip from Thys....

For a club championship, it's crucial to stay focused and manage your emotions throughout the tournament. Here are some tips to help you perform your best:

Prepare Mentally: Visualize yourself playing well and handling any challenges that may arise. Stay positive and confident in your abilities.

Stick to Your Routine: Maintain your usual pre-shot routine to stay consistent and focused. This can help manage nerves and keep you in the right mindset.

Stay Present: Focus on one shot at a time. Don't dwell on past mistakes or think too far ahead. Stay in the present moment and execute each shot with intention.

Manage Pressure: Acknowledge the pressure of the tournament, but don't let it overwhelm you. Use it as motivation to perform at your best.

Stay Hydrated and Energized: Keep yourself hydrated and nourished throughout the tournament to maintain your energy levels and focus.

Stay Positive: No matter the outcome of a shot or hole, maintain a positive attitude. Stay focused on the next shot and believe in your ability to succeed.

Enjoy the Experience: Remember that golf is a game, and the club championship is an opportunity to enjoy the competition and camaraderie with fellow golfers.

Practice Smart: Leading up to the tournament, focus on your weaknesses during practice sessions to improve your overall game.

Play Your Game: Stick to your strengths and play the game that you know best. Avoid trying new techniques or strategies that you're not comfortable with.

Stay Relaxed: Find ways to stay relaxed on the course, whether it's through deep breathing, listening to music, or chatting with playing partners.

Good luck with your club championship!

Just joking...

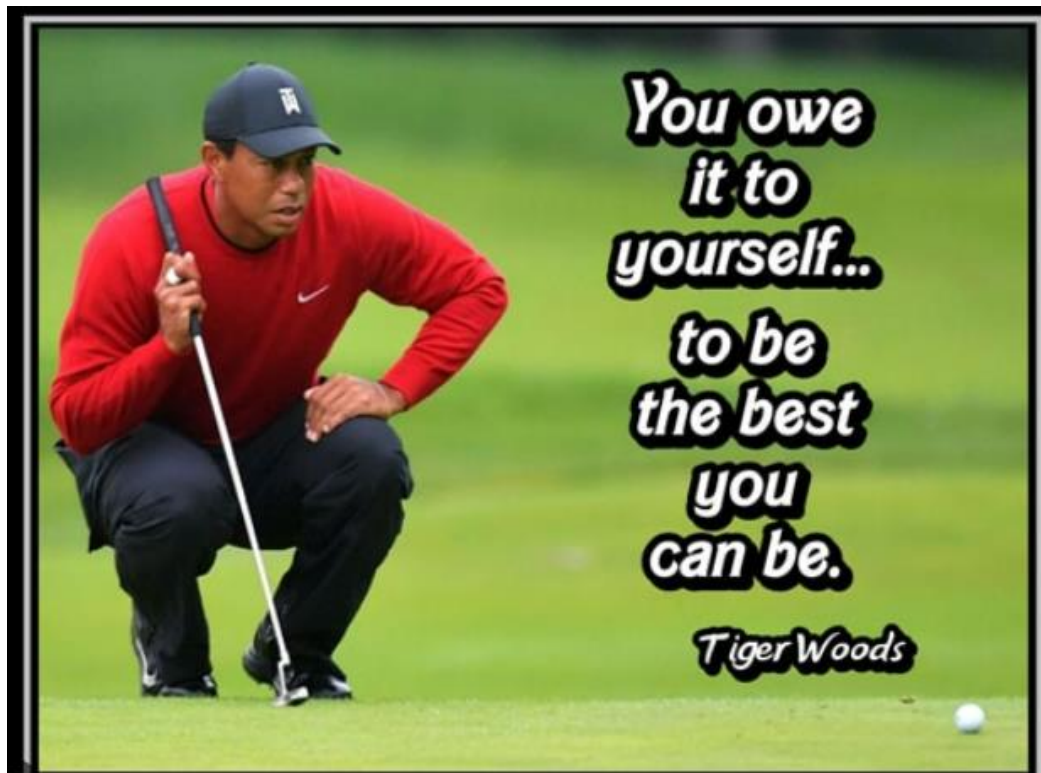

Les was out golfing with his friends when he hit his ball into the woods. As he was searching for it, he came across a frog who looked up at him and said, "Ribbit, 5-iron."

Les thought this was a bit strange but decided to listen to the frog. He took out his 5-iron and swung at the ball. To his amazement, the ball soared through the air and landed right on the green.

Excited by his success, Les picked up the frog and asked, "What should I use for the next shot?"

The frog replied, "Ribbit, Vegas."

And finally...
