Message from the Pro!

GIMMES - A gimme is a short putt conceded by an opponent because it is deemed unmissable. It is still counted as a shot but the player does not actually go through the motions of playing it.

A person may give their opponent a gimme in match play however, they are not permitted in any other competitive format. This includes medal (stroke) play, stableford competition or any other format in which a player's handicap is calculated.

So moving forward please make sure you finish the hole, failure to do so will result in disqualification.

Thank you for understanding.

Here are some of the latest developments in the world of golf:

TGL High-Tech Golf League

Rickie Fowler recently shared his perspective on the upcoming TGL high-tech indoor golf league, founded by Rory McIlroy and Tiger Woods. After testing the facilities at the SoFi Center, Fowler remarked that the experience felt akin to hitting balls in a simulator, suggesting it doesn't fully replicate traditional golf. The league, featuring top PGA Tour players competing in teams within a purpose-built arena equipped with virtual courses and large screens, is set to debut on January 7, 2025. While ESPN will broadcast the matches in the U.S., a broadcast deal for the UK and Ireland has yet to be secured.

2025 Masters Invitations

The Masters has extended invitations to ten players, including Lucas Glover and Justin Rose, for the 2025 tournament. Glover, a former U.S. Open champion, qualified by finishing the year ranked No. 50 in the Official World Golf Ranking. Other qualifiers include Tom Kim, Jason Day, and Min Woo Lee. The current field stands at 85 players, slightly down from 89 in 2024.

Tiger Woods at PNC Championship

Tiger Woods participated in the PNC Championship alongside his children, Charlie and Sam. A highlight of the event was Charlie's first-ever hole-in-one, which Woods described as a "thrill of a lifetime." Notably, Woods shared a public embrace with his ex-wife, Elin Nordegren, marking a rare moment since their 2010 divorce. This tournament marked Woods' significant return to the golf course following back surgery and recovery from a serious car accident in 2021.

Ryder Cup Compensation Controversy

Colin Montgomerie has criticized the PGA of America's decision to pay players $500,000 each for participating in the Ryder Cup, a departure from the tradition of playing solely for national pride. Montgomerie expressed that such payments undermine the spirit of the competition and suggested that funds should instead support grassroots initiatives. Fellow golfer Bernard Gallacher also condemned the decision, expressing concerns about the integrity of the Ryder Cup.

PGA of America Leadership Change

Derek Sprague has been appointed as the new CEO of the PGA of America, becoming the first club professional in nearly two decades to hold this position. A PGA member since 1993, Sprague's leadership comes at a time of significant changes in the golf industry, including the recent decision to compensate Ryder Cup players.

Padraig Harrington's Son's Achievement

Padraig Harrington expressed immense pride after witnessing his 21-year-old son, Paddy, score a remarkable hole-in-one during the final round of the PNC Championship.

Harrington described it as the most excited he had ever been on a golf course.

Interestingly, on the same day, Tiger Woods' 16-year-old son, Charlie, also achieved a hole-in-one, marking a memorable event for both families.
